BASEBALL NEWS OF INTEREST

(BY OUR SPORTING EDITOR)

There certainly seems to be a great deal more interest centered in BASEBALL this year, than ever before in this community. Last Sunday several young men, accompanied by wheelbarrows, hoes, shovels and rakes were upon the field doing the necessary to make a first-class diamond. The work is very slow and it will require a few more Sundays of hard labor to put the Sonoma Baseball Park in a class with the best.

It is proposed that a new grand stand be erected and a wind-break put up on the north side of the diamond for the protection of the fans. In the past the patrons here have been annoyed greatly by the dust being blown into their faces, so James Modini, manager, and Ralph Evans, captain, apparently have solved the problem in the wind-break.

By the opening day of this season, we will have a fast diamond, which means fast baseballs; a comfortable grand-stand which means large attendance, and both together mean success.

Boyes' Hot Springs will continue as training camp for the Seals, says the Chronicle of Sunday last, making the third straight season the San Francisco club has conditioned at the Sonoma County resort.

After spending something like four hours on the grounds and looking over the conviences offered. Manager Harry Wolverton signed a contract with Parramore and Lichtenberg and returned home late last night.

"It's a wonderful spot for a training camp," said Wolverton, who was on his first visit to Boyes. "I don't think, in all my experience, I have ever seen a place more ideally located for the purpose. If it should rain, there are plenty of mountain trails and the like on which the men can condition themselves. It didn't take me long to make up my mind when I saw what was offered."

New Officers Installed for Ensuing Term in Local Fraternities

Saturday night last was a "red letter" occasion in the history of Sonoma Grove, No. 75, A. O. U. D., when the new officers were installed, and an official visit was paid the lodge by Grand Marshal A. L. Pierce of San Francisco, Grand Herald Percy S. King of Napa, Grand Trustee B. Carrington of Santa Rosa, and Geo. Desenfant of San Francisco, the latter gentleman being one of the committee of three appointed at the annual meeting of the Grand Grove, last June, to confer with the Druid Lodges throughout the State relative to the construction of the proposed State Druids Home near Glen Ellen.

The following-named were inducted into office by District Deputy Louis Nessi: P. A., F. Dal Porto; N. A., G. Guidi; V. A., B. Mori; Cond., E. Pasquini; Sec., A. Beretta; Treas., F. Canevari; Trustees, Chas. Dal Poggetto, P. Boccoli and L. Nessi.

Following the business session, the visitors and local members of the fraternity, numbering about forty-five, repaired to the El Dorado Hotel, where a sumptuous banquet was served in fine style by Mine Host and Mrs. L. Quartaroli, and at which Secretary A. Beretta admirably presided as toastmaster, and interesting talks were given by the grand officers and others.

Sonoma Grove, which was organized in October, 1890, is in a highly flourishing condition, with a membership, in good standing, of seventy-five of Sonoma's best citizens. The organization is solidly financial, having in its treasury over five thousand dollars.

Mr. Desenfant aroused intense enthusiasm among the members by the fund of interesting information he gave out on the building of the much-anticipated State Home. The gentleman, who is in a position to speak authoritatively, stated that the construction of the Home would undoubtedly be consummated this year. To maintain the institution an annual tax of one dollar per member will be levied, and as the Druids have a membership of between seventeen and eighteen thousand in California, no difficulty would be experienced in the ample support of the undertaking.

It is proposed, moreover, that the institution also be made a source of revenue, by the construction of a sanitarium. Those who are able to pay for board and attention in the institution will be expected to do so, but the sanitarium will be open free to Druids who are unable to return financial compensation.

The land on which the Druids' Home is to be erected, as is generally known to readers of the Index-Tribune, embraces a tract of fifteen acres, near Glen Ellen, and was given to the fraternity by Dr. C. C. O'Donnell, as a site for a home for the aged, the homeless, and the orphaned. It is situate in one of the most fertile and beautiful sections of the county, and will prove idealistic as a haven for hapless age and youth.

The Santa Rosa Lodge of Moose, of which there is a large membership in Sonoma, will give an entertainment at its new hall in Santa Rosa, Monday evening, February 1st. The program will consist of musical numbers and an address by Attorney Ross Campbell on the subject of "Moths in the Candle." Mr. Campbell has spoken on this subject before, and his reputation as a thinker and orator is maintained in this address. Following the program there will be dancing.

D. H. DuVander, District Deputy Grand Master, and suite, from Asceola Lodge, No. 215, of Windsor, Sonoma County, motored to this city, Tuesday evening, for the purpose of installing the officers of Sonoma Lodge, I. O. O. F., into their respective chairs for the ensuing term.

The visiting Odd Fellows comprised the following: D. H. DuVander, D. D. G. Master; G. M. Byrn, D. D. G. Marshal; G. F. DuVander, D. D. G. Warden; W. L. Cunningham, D. D. G. Rec. Sec.; B. H. Lueberke, D. D. G. Fin. Sec.; C. W. Jessup, D. D. G. Treas.; Sheridan Peterson, D. D. G. Chap.; E. L. Washburn, D. D. G. Guard; E. L. Long, D. D. G. Herald.

The following-named were the officers installed: A. P. G., R. A. Pauli; N. G., Chas. La Torres; V. G., F. J. B. Knolle; Sec., W. S. Dunn; Treas., P. Bill; Warden, H. C. Lutgens; Conductor, H. J. Dunn; Chaplain, J. M. Cheney; R. S. S., W. D. Rambo; L. S. S., H. Castagnasso; R. S. N. G., J. D. Wagnon; L. S. N. G., G. C. Rubke; R. S. V. G.; L. S. V. G., P. Bill, Jr.; I. G., R. B. Hunter; O. G., A. J. Rouquie.

After the ceremonies of installation, a bountiful banquet was discussed

At Monday night's meeting of Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, Native Sons of the Golden West, District Deputy Milton J. Sobbe, of Glen Ellen Parlor, installed the officers who are to preside over the local Parlor for the new term. The following-named gentlemen were assigned to their respective stations: Jesse T. F. Prestwood, Past Pres.; Geo. McGill, Pres.; J. F. Picetti, 1st Vice Pres.; Chas. Groskopf, 2nd Vice Pres.; Jos. I. Keiser, 3rd Vice Pres.; Albert Groskopf, O. S.; Wm. Helberg, I. S.; Roy Pauli, Treas.; L. H. Green, Sec.

After the business session, a general good time was had, cards being the favored diversion.

Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons continues its steady and substantial growth, and now has a membership of one hundred, with two applications filed at the last meeting for consideration.

Mrs. Ida Volpe, of San Francisco, Grand Arch Druidess, paid an official visit to the local Ladies' Circle of Druids, Wednesday night, and she was complimented by being entertained at a splendid banquet, which was prepared by Mrs. M. and Miss A. Camanatta.

Arch Druidess Miss Anna Camanatta presided at the meeting, which was of unusual interest owing to the excellent addresses on "The Good of the Order" delivered by the visiting grand officer and local members. Mrs. Volpe also presented each member with a very nice Druidic pin, which was much appreciated by the recipients. After the banquet a time was passed in various social diversions.

Thursday night of next week, Mrs. Lillian Ferguson, District Deputy Grand President, of Geyserville, will install the new officers of Verdant Rebekah Lodge, as follows: Mrs. Blanche Rambo, Noble Grand; Mrs. Alice Wagnon, Vice Grand; Mrs. Entelman, Treasurer; Miss Jessie Hiser, Secretary. Owing to the fact that the Rebekah Lodge is in mourning, the session will be confined to the transaction of business only.

Supervisor Thos. Hutchinson, of Sonoma County, accompanied by Messrs. Coleman and Faw, of the California Culvert Company, of West Berkeley, inspected Sonoma City's rock crusher, this week. A crusher is to be installed in Supervisor Hutchinson's district.

Miss Agnes Moss was a popular Sonoma girl in attendance at the party given by the Koscher Club at Santa Rosa, Tuesday night. During her stay in the City of Roses, Miss Moss was the guest of Miss Gladys Grey.

The city taxes become delinquent February 1st, and by the payment of the same before that date, property owners will save money. Tax Collector J. H. Albertson is now located in the City Hall from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The last meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to be held before the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, will take place Friday afternoon of next week, January 29th, at three o'clock, in the City Hall. All ladies are cordially invited to attend and hear more of the part women are taking in this wonderful event.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Rivara (nee Miss Giglia Dal Poggetto) returned to San Francisco, Saturday night, from their bridal trip. A reception was tendered the newly-wedded couple by the groom's mother, Mrs. M. Garbaldi. Mr. and Mrs. Rivara report a delightful sojourn in the southland and are now "at home" to their friends in the Bay City.

County Superintendent Miss Florence M. Barnes has completed the apportionment of State funds to the various school districts of the county. The total apportionment was $70,236.40. This was apportioned on a basis of $130 per teacher to the State fund, $110 to the county fund, and $20 to the library fund. The special sum set aside for Sonoma district was $711.44.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. K. Bigelow, of Sonoma, do not allow a little storm to interfere with their pleasure and they proved themselves to be genuine music lovers by motoring over from Sonoma for the Steindorff recital (which occurred in Petaluma Tuesday of last week). They came over in their big car and as usual were accompanied by a merry party of guests. They formed a box party at the Hill and Mr. Bigelow met several of his friends in the foyer between numbers and enjoyed the evening thoroughly.—Petaluma Argus.

Mrs. Louis Breitenbach was hostess to the members of Saint Barbara's Guild, Tuesday, when over twenty ladies gathered in the comfortable home to enjoy the hospitality extended, and the afternoon was most pleasantly spent by the assembled company. Delicious refreshments were also greatly onjoyed.

Mrs. James C. Campbell received a cordial welcome from her host of Sonoma friends, on her return from San Francisco, last Saturday night. For several weeks Mrs. Campbell had been at the Lane Hospital, where she underwent a critical operation, from the effects of which the lady has made splendid progress to good health.

Walter "Chip" Bonner's many Sonoma friends will deeply regret to learn that he is very ill in San Francisco, where he is at St. Luke's Hospital under the care of Dr. A. K. Happersberger. Mrs. Grace Granice, the young man's mother, left for the Bay City, yesterday afternoon, to be with her son, and from whom, it is hoped, hopeful reports will come of "Chip's" condition.

Messrs. Collins & Mohr, the enterprising proprietors of the Don Theatre, continue to present each week special attractions. Friday night of next week, January 29th, the pictured romance, "Caprice," will be presented with charming Mary Pickford, the favorite of all frequenters of the "movies," in the title role. "Caprice" is the drama in which Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fisk starred with great success.

The real estate agency of Peters & Baines, of El Verano, dissolved partnership the first of the year, and henceforth J. T. Peters will devote all his attention to his metropolitan business interests, while Thos. H. Baines, the other firm member, continues his activities in the real estate and insurance business at the old stand at El Verano. The agency of Peters & Baines had been in existence since 1887. Discussing the condition of the realty market at the present time, Mr. Baines reported decided quietude for some time past. Inquiries are, for the most part, for exchange in properties.

From Mayor Wm. Von Hacht we learn that City Engineer Chapman, of Richmond, has written the Board of City Trustees that Wednesday of next week will be an opportune time for the inspection by that honorable body of the streets of Richmond. Weather conditions permitting, the city fathers will visit Richmond next week, and anticipate gaining much valuable information by the trip of inspection, as Richmond is said to have almost every type of pavement, and Sonoma's Trustees will be enabled to advantageously decide as to what will give the most satisfaction in our own city street work.

E. D. DePlace, whose farm is situated about one mile south of town, and who has one of the best and largest fig orchards in the county, intends planting more fig trees during the coming season, replacing two acres of apple orchard with this fruit. This will give Mr. DePlace a fig orchard of ten acres, numbering about five hundred and fifty trees, all of the Black Mission variety, the most luscious and favorite fig. Mr. DePlace has harvested as many as fifty fifteen-pound boxes of the fruit from one tree, and as the Black Mission fig as a rule finds ready market at a satisfactory price, he rightly believes the uprooting of apple trees and increasing the acreage of figs a profitable venture.

Petaluma has a pretty good idea in handling able-bodied beggars, remarks the Santa Rosa Press Democrat. When such men are arrested, Police Judge Dillon sentences them to so many days' work. After a few days' hard work they are willing to take more active steps to get employment. His Honor, the Petaluma magistrate, sentenced two men to ten days' work in the corporation yard and it will be healthful exercise. Three other men who had been begging were given "floaters." And they "floated." This sort of treatment cannot fail to have a salutary effect upon the average tramp, whose worthlessness and indisposition to earn a living has resulted in his condition no longer evoking pity. The Index-Tribune suggests that Sonoma follow the wise example set by Petaluma, thus keeping the community rid of the men who are actual vagabonds.

INVEST IN FARM IMPLEMENTS WHEN NEEDED, NOT BEFORE

THERE was never before such an opportunity for mental pathologists to observe the workings of the human mind under the inspiration of the unthoughtful or designing. Observers are doubtless accumulating great volumes of data which will be available for treatment of the mental disorders of the next generation, says the San Francisco Chronicle, in commenting on the resolution of the Association of Agricultural Publishers to co-operate in a Nation-wide campaign under the slogan, "Buy It Now," which it characterizes as "An instance of queer inhuman thought," and continues as follows:

There is nothing unwholesome in the underlying motive which prompted the resolution, which is, of course, the falling off of advertising patronage, resulting from the fact that buyers do not respond to advertising with orders and checks as they were wont to do. The publishers wish to stimulate buying in order to stimulate advertising. That is natural enough.

The interesting thing will be to note the effect of the exhortation on the farmers to whom it will be addressed. Will the farmer, as its result, buy a mowing machine now which he will not need until next summer? The assumption is that he will if a sufficient number of people urge him to do so a sufficient number of times. And it cannot be denied that the members of the Association of Agricultural Publishers are canny men, with long experience in observing the effect of exhortation upon farmers in getting them to do things for which no sound reason can be given.

But if everybody who will need things next summer should buy them now, what would become of the trade and the advertising of next summer?

There is no doubt that farmers, as well as others, are economizing. They are spending no money which they can keep and incurring no obligations which they can avoid because they fear they may need the money a little later even more than they will need the implements which they might buy now. Like others, they have lost that confidence in the future, which is the mainspring of human enterprise This is shown by the fact that they are buying so much less than formerly that in order to help the advertising business it is necessary to exhort them to buy now whatever they can think of that they are likely to need sometime.

This assumption that the farmers, who have been considered our most conservative class, have now been brought into such a state of mind that suggestion will induce them to do foolish things is the interesting feature of the resolution of these publishers.

Up to and including Dec. 31st, 1914, City Marshal J. H. Albertson paid into the city treasury $93.00, less twenty-five per cent. This amount was collected for dog licenses at $1.00 per dog. On January 1, 1915, licenses became delinquent, and the tax is now $2.00. But one fee has been paid since the first of the year, despite the fact that a considerable number of unlicensed dogs are roaming about the streets. Marshal Albertson wishes to remind their owners that there is a penalty attached to the non-payment of dog licenses of a fine of $50 or ten days' imprisonment.

The Week's Record of Social Happenings

Birthday Celebrated

A store of pleasant memories were carried away by the girl and boy friends of the Misses Doroles and Dorothy Breitenbach, who assembled in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Breitenbach, Friday night of last week, to celebrate the sixteenth anniversary of the birth of the twin girls, who are prime favorites in the younger social set.

"Sweet sixteen" was paid due homage. Luxuriant foliage intermingled with graceful festoons of crepe paper—pink in the parlor and white in the dining-room—gave a fitting festive setting, and the dining-table was embellished by the handsome birthday cake, which was presented the young ladies by their guests of the gallant sex.

The cutting of this cake created no end of merriment, and quite a bit of trepidation and heart-fluttering as each miss and swain carefully extracted a slice from the triumph of the confectioner's art. Miss Martha Luhrs drew forth the doll; Miss Providence LaTorres the button, Bert Koerner the safety pin and Fred Helberg the thimble. Games, dancing, and other forms of diversions so pleasure-giving to youth made it matter of reluctance for the young people to disperse. The expressions of an evening enjoyed were as sincere, as the hope for decades of birthdays for the fair girl hostesses.

Those present were: Mesdames A. W. Adler and Geo. Breitenbach; Misses Florence DeSart, Eleanor Kehoe, Martha Landsgraf, Isabel and Alice Trudgen, Ethel Evans, Marie Helberg, Providence La Torres, Gertrude and Anita Breitenbach; Messrs. Leland Brubeck, James and Will Kehoe, Will and Fred Helberg, Harold Hotz, Bert Koerner, Russell and Rodney Prestwood and Henry Castagnasso.

Addressed Woman's Club

Mrs. Percy L. King, President of the San Francisco District of Federated Woman's Clubs, was guest of honor at the social meeting of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, Friday afternoon of last week.

While Mrs. King gave no formal address, she entertained the ladies with an account of the last district meeting at Pacific Grove, and then recounted some of her enjoyable memories of the Chicago Biennial which she attended.

The point which the speaker endeavored to bring out most clearly was that each federated club is one—a unit—in such a large machine as the General Federation, which numbers over one million women. Mrs. King impressed upon her auditors that, while their efforts, though seemingly small and often futile, if properly directed, was in reality the working toward one end, making the result to be obtained mighty.

The afternoon was also enlivened by two beautiful solos, very sweetly sung by Miss Nancy Bates and charmingly accompanied by Mrs. J. Fochetti, Jr.

Delicious home-made cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Marie Clewe, the hostess of the day, and the large number of members who were present report a most pleasantly-to-be-remembered session.

Social and Financial Success

Manager James Modini and Captain Ralph Evans were smilingly happy when the proceeds from the ball, given at Union Hall, Saturday night, showed the nice balance of something over forty dollars.

The dance was very largely attended and splendidly managed, Floor Manager Ralph Evans exerting himself to make of the affair a creditable and successful undertaking for "just a bunch" of young athletes. Ralph proved fully equal to the occasion, and with his coterie of willing and enthusiastic assistants—James L. Modini, Emile Andreaux, Peter Boccoli, Jack Poulson, Charles Kelly, Richard Rahwyler and Fred Helberg—made of the ball "one grand, good time."

Wedded Twenty Years

Wednesday, January 20th, was an occasion of happy memories for Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaTorres, that date being the twentieth anniversary of the marriage of the much-esteemed couple.

The auspicious event was most happily celebrated, adding many pleasant thoughts to those stored away in the niches of Memory's Halls, gathered throughout the passing years of a harmonious union, and treasured by this very worthy couple as priceless possessions.

The pretty LaTorres home, on Napa street, was artistically decorated with trailing smylax and other green, from which were suspended strings of scarlet hearts. Place cards, heart-shaped, assigned the guests to their respective seats at the beautifully adorned table.

Mrs. La Torres was "at home" to a number of lady friends during the afternoon, and in the evening the bride and groom of twenty years entertained a party of intimate friends, ladies and gentlemen, with cards, social converse and music.

The hostess was the recipient of many beautiful pieces of china, one of the most appreciated being a handsome hand-painted cake plate, the gift of her son Robert, who was unable to come up from San Francisco for the occasion. Mr. LaTorres completed the day's happiness of his wife by presenting her with a complete and elegant service of silver flatware.

During the eight years of their residence in Sonoma, Mr. and Mrs LaTorres have taken rank with the representative residents of the community, and enjoy the highest meed of esteem and friendship of a host.

With other friends, we unite in extending cordial congratulations, and hope that many, many more years of happy wedded life stretch ahead of Mr. and Mrs LaTorres.

Church Board Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Luce entertained the officers and deacons of the Congregational Church, Wednesday evening. While the gathering was, for the most part, of a business nature, the hospitable host and hostess varied the routine by inviting the wives of the gentlemen, thus contributing to the general pleasure socially. Dainty refreshments were served and at a late hour the company dispersed, with words of appreciation for the pleasure afforded by the popular host and hostess.

The invited guests included the following-named: Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rowell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dobbel, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Engelund.

Entertained Card Club

Mrs. Wm. Clewe entertained the Bridge-Whist Club, on Thursday at the attractive Wm. Clewe home on Second Street East. The ladies enjoyed the hours immensely, and at the close of the game honors fell to the lot of Miss Doris Clewe, who was presented with a handsome wicker basket. The gracious hostess served her guests with the most palatable of refreshments.

Homeless Children Benefit

Messrs. John F. Picetti, Charles Groskopf and Roy Pauli, the committee appointed by Sonoma Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, to arrange the benefit for the homeless children of members of the fraternity, announce details complete for the Grand Ball, which is the planned-for function for the raising of funds.

The ball is to take place Saturday night of next week, January 30th, at Union Hall, which is to be attractively decorated by the Native Sons. The Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra of four pieces will provide music and in every respect this benefit for hapless bereft little ones aside from being most worthy of patronage, may properly be anticipated with real pleasure.

St. Patrick's Ball

Wednesday, February 17th, will be Ash Wednesday—the beginning of the penitential season and social quietude will prevail for six weeks following. The Lenten period will, of course, be brightened by the usual small, informal home gatherings, and on the night of March 17th—St. Patrick's Day—a grand ball, to be given by the local baseball nine, will lure devotees of Terpsichore to Union Hall. The boys are planning effective decorations, good music, and a "we won't go home until morning time."

Mask Ball at Glen Ellen

Glen Ellen's flourishing lodge of the Women of Woodcraft is again to the fore in a social way, with the announcement of a grand masquerade ball. Saturday night, February 13th, is the date named for the ball, which takes place at Chauvet Hall. Mesdames C. J. Poppe and C. C. Weise, and Mr. L. Costa comprise the committee of arrangements. Prizes are to be given for the best dressed and most excellently sustained characters, ladies and gentlemen, respectively. Sonomaites who enjoy the merriment of dancing incognito will have ample time to arrange costumes. It is a foregone conclusion, too, that our city will be as well represented at this Valentine Eve Ball as on former occasions.

Card Party

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club entertained at cards, last night, in the Club Parlors in the Schocken Building. The committee of arrangements comprised Mesdames A. H. Bates, L. V. Imparan, R. L. Watt, H. H. Eaton and Carrie A. Burlingame.

MRS. F. LOWELL CRITICALLY ILL

Undergoes Capital Operation in St. Francis Hospital San Francisco

The legion of friends throughout the valley of the Lowell family await with marked anxiety news from the sick room of Mrs. Fred Lowell, who lies in a precarious condition at the St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco, where for two months' past she has been undergoing medical treatment. On Wednesday morning, Mrs. Lowell underwent a major operation, from which she rallied fairly well. Just as we go to press, we learn from Mrs. A. D. Lowell, who had received a message from her son, that the condition of his wife was very critical, although not hopeless.

ANNUAL MEETINGS OF SONOMA BANKS

At the annual meeting of stockholders of the First National Bank of Sonoma, held Tuesday of last week, the same Board of Directors and officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, as follows: Fred Batto, N. J. Heggie, Fred Bulotti, L. H. Green, and Henry Rubke, directors; Fred Batto, president; N. J. Heggie, vice president and cashier; Fred Bulotti, assistant cashier. Vice President Heggie reports the institution to be solidly prosperous, and as having had a very satisfactory year.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Sonoma Valley Bank was held, Tuesday last, and from Cashier Jesse Burris we learn that that institution is in a flourishing condition, and reported last year as having been a prosperous one. There has been no change in the personnel of the stockholders of the bank, and the present Board of Directors and officers were re-elected, viz.: Directors—Mrs. J. A. Burris, Frank M. and Jesse Burris, F. T. Duhring and P. H. Thompson; officers—Frank Burris, president; F. T. Duhring, vice president; Jesse Burris, cashier; R. E. Perkins, assistant cashier; A. S. Luce, teller.

Judge Campbell Sustained

The sentence of one day in the county jail and $100 fine imposed by Justice James Campbell of this city, last month, on Attorney C. C. Cowgill, also of Sonoma, was sustained by Judge Emmet Seawell in the Superior Court, Monday. Readers of the Index-Tribune are familiar with the facts in the case, of which the contempt proceedings were the outcome. The sentence imposed on Attorney Cowgill after a lapse of time was made the subject of much comment and conjecture as to its legality, and as to whether or not Judge Campbell would be sustained by the higher court. Through his attorney, Thos. J. Butts, of Santa Rosa, Attorney Cowgill applied to the Appellate Court for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted.

Jubilee Singers Coming

Friday night, February 12th, at Union Hall, Buckner's famous Dixie Jubilee Concert Company of eight colored talented artists, will appear under the auspices of the Board of Directors of the Congregational Church. Complete program and details next week.

Reaches Seventy-Fifth Year

On Sunday, January 17th, G. Steckmeyer, a respected resident of the Sonoma Valley, attained the hale age of seventy-five years, and the reaching of the memorable milestone found the gentleman fortunately enjoying the best of health and the good wishes of a wide circle of friends. On Monday evening, following the anniversary, Mr. Steckmeyer was the guest of honor at a "stag party," at which Messrs. Ralph Busby and E. Coates were hosts. A jolly time was passed in music and converse, and a "feed" of rare excellence. With other friends, we hope Mr. Steckmeyer will live to happily celebrate many more birthday anniversaries.

Weekly News Budget of Schellville and Vineburg

FROM VINEBURG

Howard Knight, one of Schellville's solid men, transacted business at Batto's Spur, on Monday last.

Miss Adele Andrieux, bookkeeper for the firm of John Batto & Sons, paid a business trip to the metropolis, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and family and Miss Adele Andrieux enjoyed the interesting sights of Napa City, Sunday last.

Frank C Rhode, one of the most enterprising and successful poultry men on the Hyde tract, is now busy preparing for a lively hatching season.

A. W. Lehrke, after inspecting his business interests in Mendocino and Amador Counties will return to Vineburg the latter part of the week.

A number of our baseball fans, both gentlemen and ladies, attended the grand ball at Union Hall, Saturday evening, and all speak highly of the affair.

Mrs. Albert Groskopf accompanied by her sons, Frank and Aloise, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potter, Sunday, and report spending a pleasant day.

William Fields, master carpenter, better known to his legion of friends in this vicinity as "Billy Fields," of San Francisco, was the guest of Howard Brown at New Vineburg Inn, Sunday last.

One straight car of white Egyptian corn, one of alfalfa hay, and one of whole yellow corn were switched in on Batto's Spur, last Wednesday morning, and the same day two carloads of dried fruit were shipped out.

We notice that a number of mechanics are busily engaged in renovating the office of our genial station agent, Grover Rubke, and when finished Vineburg can boast of a first-class ticket and freight office.

On Sunday last, the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Vineburg was brightened by the arrival of a native son—a fine, bright eyed young blacksmith. Welcome, little brother! May you live long and prosper!

John Cnopius, Santa Rosa's well known merchant and dried fruit buyer, and Albert Garcia, representing the commission firm of Garcia & Maggini, of San Francisco, transacted business at Batto's Spur, on Wednesday last.

John Picetti, one of Sonoma Valley's most popular business men, very often passes through Vineburg in his swell auto. Jack says he admires the "beauties" of this part of the valley. "Beauties" is right! "Johnnie, My Old Friend John!"

Misses Pauline and Victoria Robin, two well-known and popular native daughters of the Bear Flag City, but now residing in San Francisco, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto at their residence near Vineburg, Friday of last week.

Howard Brown transacted business in the City of Roses, Tuesday last, and during his absence, A. Marcucci filled Mr. Brown's place. During the past week, Mr. Brown has installed a fine graphaphone in New Vineburg Inn, and this, with the electric piano, will render some up-to-date music in the future.

Wednesday of last week, a number of distinguished duck and geese hunters invaded the tules and after a fine day's sport, returned to Vineburg well pleased with their trip, and with the number of birds secured. The party consisted of Messrs. Charles Wright and Carl Bundschu of San Francisco, Walter Bundschu of Rhine Farm, and A. Marcucci, the well-known young wing shot of Vineburg, who chaperoned the party.

EASY JIM.

DEAR EASY: I have just returned from my holiday trip through the southern part of the State. I have been doing fine, and "doing" my friends also. But, Easy, there is only one Vineburg, and, thank heaven, I'm in it!

Since my return, I have heard that our ex mayor intends to sell two acres of "The Old Homestead" to a local capitalist, who will erect a large hotel and conduct it on the European plan.

Well, at the present time in Europe, excuse me! You see, sometimes the "hot air" of Vineburg ascends to a higher altitude until it strikes a cold current, and when they meet that makes a funny noise and I think the "large hotel" is the noise.

During the last spell of rainy weather, a young lady alighted from the evening train, and as there was no one to meet her she started to walk home in the dark and lost her way, wandering about 'til she came to a friend's house, and reached "home, sweet home." Although a number of society men were at the station, not one was gallant enough to offer to escort the lady home. Of course, they may look fine on a ballroom floor, but when it comes to stormy weather, they look just as bright as a lighthouse in a fog. We will forget them, Easy.

Believe, yours truly,
MINNIE MADDEN.

It has a capacity sufficient to wash at one time all the dishes of the average family, yet is so light and portable that it can be easily moved from place to place.
The movement of the handle forward and backward revolves the propeller in the bottom of the washer, which dashes the hot soapy water with a swirling effect around, through and over all the dishes, forcibly attacking them at all points, and cleansing them with absolute perfection on all sides. The dishes are completely washed in less than one minute's time and the washer works so easily that a child can operate it.
Turning down the small lever at the top of the washer, opens drain valve and discharges the water in a few seconds. The dishes are then rinsed and sterilized by pouring a dishpan of clear boiling water through the lid and turning the handle about thirty seconds. The rinsing operation automatically cleans the washer itself, which always remains in an absolutely sanitary condition.
Beautifully illustrated booklet showing every phase of the Whirlpool Sanitary Dishwasher sent on request.

C. E. Humbert of Cloverdale was elected to represent Sonoma county as a director of the California Grape Protective Association at its business session in San Francisco, Saturday

The Association is working on a new law for the control of the liquor industry, which will be introduced at this session of the legislature. Young People in Trouble

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Prentice, a young couple from Cloverdale, are in serious trouble in San Francisco. They are charged with robbing the home of Mrs. Ella Meyers of that city.

During their three or four months' residence in Cloverdale, Prentice was employed at the Northwestern Pacific depot, and his wife, a girl of eighteen years, worked in a hotel. The young people were married after leaving the Orange City. According to the story related by the bride, she and her husband were without funds, due to the inability of the husband to secure employment. She, however, secured a position in the home of Mrs. Meyers, but the compensation was insufficient to meet the living expenses of both. Mrs Prentice stole valuables from her employer worth from $200 to $300. The jewelry was taken to a pawnbroker and disposed of and the police had but little difficulty in tracing the theft to the young couple. When confronted by the evidence Mrs. Prentice broke down and confessed. They are in jail.
